

I do not support the attempts by the NAB to prevent satellite radio from providing whatever content it chooses as it is a service for which I pay for. As a XM customer I use the local traffic for New York almost every day and I strongly discourage you from voting in the NAB's favor.